- (h) the conditions to which the licence is subject;
- (j) in relation to a firearms dealer licence and firearms armourer licence, the business name, if any, of the holder; and
- (j) in relation to a firearms employee licence, the name of the employer of the holder.

27. Firearms dealer's register and return

(1) For the purposes of section 18 of the Act, the prescribed particulars for each purchase, receipt, sale or transfer of a firearm or firearm part by the holder of a firearms dealer licence are –

- (a) the name and address of the person involved in the purchase, receipt, sale or transfer;
- (b) the number of the person's licence authorising the person to possess or use the firearm or firearm part;
- (c) the number of the person's permit to purchase or acquire the firearm or firearm part;
- (d) for each firearm or firearm part that is or has been in the possession of the holder of the firearms dealer licence –
 - (i) the date of its initial purchase or receipt by the holder and of its subsequent sale or transfer;

Firearms Regulations

- (ii) the name and address of the person who initially gave possession of it to the holder; and
- (iii) when it is sold or transferred, its make, serial number, calibre, type, action and magazine capacity (if any).

(2) [Omitted]

28. – 29. [Repealed]

30. Automatic cancellation of licences and permits

For the purposes of section 40(2) of the Act, the following conditions are prescribed:

- (a) a condition authorising the carrying of category H firearms whilst physically present during the transfer or security of money or other valuable items in the course of duty as a security guard;
- (b) a condition authorising the carrying of category H firearms for approved purposes;
- (c) a condition requiring a pistol to be in a holster and is secured by an approved trigger guard;
- (d) a condition that firearms of a person's employer be possessed or used only in the course of employment;
- (e) a condition authorising the possession or use of category H firearms for approved activities;
- (f) a condition prohibiting the carrying of category H firearms concealed on the person.

31. Notice of appeal

For the purposes of section 51 of the Act, the prescribed form is Form 4 in Schedule 1.

32. Transporting firearms

(1) For the purposes of section 66 of the Act, a prohibited firearm or a category A, B, C, D or H firearm may be conveyed –

- (a) by registered post;
- (b) by a commercial freight carrier or a common carrier; or

Firearms Regulations

- (c) in the possession of –
 - (i) the owner of the firearm; or
 - (ii) a person who is licensed to be in possession of the firearm and who has the owner's permission to be in possession of the firearm.
- (2) Where –
 - (a) a firearm is being conveyed in a motor vehicle; and
 - (b) the motor vehicle is left unattended at a place away from where the firearm is normally stored or secured,

then –

- (c) the firearm is to be placed in the boot, the cargo carrying area or some other lockable compartment of the vehicle or is to be secured by means of a firearm securing device;
- (d) the firearm is to be completely hidden from open view;
- (e) ammunition for the firearm is to be placed in a lockable compartment of the vehicle (other than the compartment in which the firearm is placed) or in a locked container secured in or on the vehicle; and
- (f) the person in charge of the vehicle must take all reasonable steps to ensure that, while the vehicle remains unattended, the firearm –
 - (i) is kept safely in the vehicle;
 - (ii) is not stolen or removed from the vehicle; and
 - (iii) does not come into the possession of a person who is not licensed to be in possession of the firearm.

33. Recognition of interstate licences

(1) For the purposes of section 92(b) of the Act, while a person who is a resident of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth is residing temporarily in the Territory the person is not required to hold a licence to possess category A or category B firearms if the person is the holder of a corresponding licence.

(2) In subregulation (1), "residing temporarily" means residing for a period less than 3 months.

34. International competitors – prescribed information

(1) For the purposes of section 33A(2) of the Act, the following information is prescribed:

- (a) the international competitor's full name, address and date of birth;
- (b) the international competitor's passport or visa number (including details of the country of issue and date of expiry);
- (c) the make, model, calibre, action and serial number of the firearm being imported by the international competitor;
- (d) the international competitor's reason for importing more than one firearm (if applicable);
- (e) the international competitor's firearms licence from his or her country of residence showing the official stamp or other mark of the issuing authority, a photograph of the applicant, the country of issue, the date of expiry and the classes or categories of firearms to which the licence relates;
- (f) the dates and locations of shooting competition events in which the international competitor will participate;
- (g) the period the international competitor intends to stay in Australia.

(2) If an international competitor is unable to produce a firearms licence as required by subregulation (1)(e), the international competitor will be taken to have complied with the paragraph if the international competitor provides to the Commissioner a clearance certificate, containing a photograph of the international competitor and signed by the relevant authority in the international competitor's country of residence, declaring that the international competitor is lawfully entitled to possess, carry and use firearms in that country of the categories or classes named in the certificate.

PART 5 – CATEGORY H SPORTS SHOOTING

35. Definitions

In this Part –

"IPSC" means International Practical Shooting Confederation;

"ISSF" means International Sports Shooting Federation;

"NRA" means National Rifle Association.

36. Prescribed category H firearms

(1) For sections 15A(1), 15C(a), 35A(2), 58(2A)(a)(i) and 110 of the Act, the following are prescribed firearms:

- (a) category H firearms that comply with the following:
 - (i) the calibre of the firearm does not exceed .38" unless the firearm is for use in a specially accredited discipline, in which case the calibre may exceed .38" but must not exceed .45";
 - (ii) if the firearm is self-loading, the barrel length is not less than 120mm;
 - (iii) if the firearm is a revolver or a single-shot pistol, the barrel length is not less than 100 mm;
 - (iv) the shot capacity of the firearm does not exceed 10 rounds;
- (b) black powder or muzzle loading pistols;
- (c) cap and ball percussion revolvers;
- (d) highly specialised target pistols.

(2) In subregulation (1) –

"barrel length" means –

- (a) if the firearm is a revolver, the distance from the muzzle of the barrel to the breach end immediately in front of the cylinder; and
- (b) if the firearm is not a revolver, the distance from the muzzle of the barrel to the point of the breach face (which includes the chamber);

"highly specialised target pistol" means a pistol –

- (a) that does not comply with the specifications in paragraph (a); and
- (b) that is held under a category H sports shooter's licence for use in ISSF competition events where both the pistol and the use of the pistol comply fully with the rules of the ISSF.

37. Prescribed category H sports shooting disciplines

For the definition of "category H sports shooting" in section 3(1) of the Act, each of the following is a prescribed category H shooting discipline if the match is run in accordance with the rules of the national or international body that administers the discipline:

- (a) Black Powder Match;
- (b) IPSC;
- (c) ISSF;
- (d) Metallic Silhouette;
- (e) NRA Action Match;
- (f) Police and Services Match;
- (g) Single Action Match.

38. Specially accredited disciplines

For the definition of "specially accredited discipline" in section 3(1) of the Act, the following category H sports shooting disciplines are prescribed as disciplines for which a category H firearm with a calibre greater than .38" but not greater than .45" may be used:

- (a) Metallic Silhouette;
- (b) Single Action Match.

39. Participation rate

For section 15C(d) of the Act, the prescribed participation rate for the holder of a category H sports shooter's licence is as follows:

- (a) a minimum of 12 shooting events in a calendar year with not less than 3 events in any financial quarter-year;
- (b) if the holder of the licence engages in 3 shooting disciplines, the minimum number of shooting events for the calendar year is 14;
- (c) for each additional shooting discipline in excess of 3 disciplines that the holder of the licence engages in, the minimum number of shooting events for the calendar year increases by 4.

PART 6 – INFRINGEMENT NOTICES

40. When infringement notice may be served

If a member of the Police Force believes that a person has committed an offence against a provision of the Act or these Regulations specified in column 1 of Schedule 4, he or she may serve an infringement notice on the person.

41. Prescribed amount

The prescribed amount that may be paid, instead of the penalty that may otherwise be imposed, for an offence against a provision of the Act or these Regulations specified in column 1 of Schedule 4 is the amount specified opposite in column 2.

42. Particulars to be included in infringement notice

An infringement notice is to include the following particulars:

- (a) the name and address of the alleged offender;
- (b) the date, time and place of the offence;
- (c) the nature of the offence and the prescribed amount payable in respect of that offence;
- (d) the person to whom the alleged offender may pay the prescribed amount and the address of that person;
- (e) the date of the infringement notice and a statement that the prescribed amount may be paid within 28 days after that date;
- (f) a statement to the effect that, if the alleged offender wishes to pay the prescribed amount, he or she should complete the relevant part of the infringement notice and return the notice with the prescribed amount to the person specified in the notice;
- (g) a statement to the effect that, if the alleged offender wishes to be dealt with by a court in relation to the offence, he or she should not pay the prescribed amount but should complete the relevant part of the infringement notice and return the notice to the person specified in the notice;
- (h) a statement that, if the alleged offender does nothing in response to the infringement notice, a summons may be issued requiring the alleged offender to appear before a court of summary jurisdiction to be dealt with in relation to the offence;

- (i) any other particulars approved by the Commissioner.

43. Expiation of offence

(1) If an alleged offender pays the prescribed amount specified in an infringement notice in accordance with the notice, the alleged offender is taken to have expiated the offence and no further proceedings are to be taken in respect of the offence.

(2) If an alleged offender tenders a cheque in payment of a prescribed amount, the amount is not taken to have been paid unless the cheque is cleared on first presentation.

44. Withdrawal of infringement notice

An infringement notice may be withdrawn at any time within 28 days after it is served, but before payment of the prescribed amount specified in the infringement notice, by serving on the alleged offender a notice –

- (a) signed by the member of the Police Force who issued the notice or another member authorised by the Commissioner for the purpose; and
- (b) stating that the infringement notice is withdrawn.

45. How service effected

Service of an infringement notice, or a notice of withdrawal of an infringement notice, is effected –

- (a) by serving it personally on the alleged offender;
- (b) by posting it to the alleged offender at his or her last known address; or
- (c) by leaving it for the alleged offender at his or her last known place of residence or business with a person apparently resident or employed there and apparently not less than 16 years of age.

46. General

This Part –

- (a) does not prevent more than one infringement notice in respect of the same offence being served on an alleged offender, but it is sufficient for the application of regulation 43 to an alleged offender on whom more than one infringement notice has been served for the alleged offender to pay the prescribed amount in accordance with any one of those notices;

Firearms Regulations

- (b) does not prejudice or affect (except as provided by regulation 43) the institution or prosecution of proceedings, and does not limit the penalty that may be imposed by a court, for an offence; and
- (c) does not require an infringement notice to be served and does not affect the liability of a person to be prosecuted in a court for an offence in respect of which an infringement notice has not been served."

SCHEDULE 2

Regulation 21

STORAGE AND SAFEKEEPING REQUIREMENTS FOR CATEGORY A AND B FIREARMS

1. The sides and door are to be constructed of solid steel –
 - (a) that has a minimum thickness of 3 mm; or
 - (b) that has a minimum thickness of 2 mm if the method of construction used ensures rigidity or additional reinforcing to prevent distortion has been included.
2. All edges are to be rolled or folded.
3. The door is to be recessed or flush fitted and is to be sized to prevent leverage points.
4. All hinges are to be secured so that the door cannot be detached by removing the pins, internal or trap-type hinges being preferred.
5. There are at least 2 bolt-down points.
6. There is to be one locking point.
7. There is to be sufficient reinforcing to prevent distortion of the door if a forced entry were to be attempted.
8. If a padlock is used, it is to be covered so as to prevent the lock being cut or broken off.

Regulation 22

STORAGE AND SAFEKEEPING REQUIREMENTS FOR CATEGORY C, D AND H FIREARMS

1. The safe or other receptacle is to be constructed of solid steel –
 - (a) that has a minimum thickness of 6 mm in the sides and the door; or
 - (b) that, subject to inspection and approval by the Commissioner, has minimum thicknesses of 3 mm in the sides and 6 mm in the door.
2. All hinges are to be non-removable and are to be constructed in the same manner as safe-style hinges.
3. Locks are to be internal and may be combination locks, key locks or electronic locks or a mixture of 2 or more of those kinds of locks.
4. A safe or other receptacle for the storage of category C or D firearms is to have at least 2 locks.
5. A safe or other receptacle for the storage of category H firearms is to have –
 - (a) at least one lock; or
 - (b) if the swinging edge is greater than 500 mm – at least 2 locks.
6. Alternatively, category H firearms may be stored in a compartment inside a receptacle that complies the requirements specified in Schedule 2 (a "Schedule 2 receptacle") if the compartment –
 - (a) is a separate box inside the Schedule 2 receptacle;
 - (b) has a thickness of solid steel that is at least equal to the thickness of the steel in the Schedule 2 receptacle;
 - (c) can only be accessed if the door to the Schedule 2 receptacle is opened first; and
 - (d) is designed so that, in combination with the Schedule 2 receptacle, it provides a double thickness of steel on all sides.
