- (a) confer on the Authority such additional functions relating to security services and connected with the functions conferred on it by subsections (1) and (2) or any order under this subsection as the Minister considers appropriate, and
 - (b) make such provision as the Minister considers necessary or expedient in relation to matters ancillary to or arising out of any of the functions mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (4) The Minister may by order amend or revoke an order under this section, including an order under this subsection.
- (5) Any function of the Authority may, without prejudice to its general responsibilities under this Act, be performed through or by its Chief Executive or any other member of its staff duly authorised in that behalf.
- (6) The Authority may, subject to this Act, do anything which it considers necessary or expedient for enabling it to perform its functions.

Strategic plans.

9.—(1) The Authority shall, as soon as practicable after it is established and thereafter within 6 months before each third anniversary of its establishment, prepare and submit to the Minister, for approval by the Minister with or without amendment, a strategic plan for the ensuing 3-year period.

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

(2) A strategic plan shall—

Pt.2 S.9

- (a) set out the key objectives, outputs and related strategies of the Authority, including its use of resources,
 - (b) comply with any directions issued from time to time by the Minister in relation to the form and manner of the plan's preparation, and
 - (c) have regard to the need to ensure the most beneficial and efficient use of the Authority's resources.
- (3) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after a strategic plan has been so approved, cause a copy of it to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.

10.—(1) There shall be a chief executive officer of the Authority Chief Executive.
(in this Act referred to as the “Chief Executive”).

(2) The Chief Executive shall, subject to subsection (3)(b), be appointed by the Minister on the recommendation of the Civil Service Commissioners.

(3) The appointment shall either—

- (a) be on such terms as the Minister may, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, determine and be subject to the Civil Service Commissioners Act 1956 and the Civil Service Regulation Acts 1956 to 1996, or
 - (b) be on such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Authority and approved by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Finance.
- (4) The Chief Executive shall manage and control generally the staff, administration and business of the Authority and perform such other functions as may be conferred on him or her by or under this Act or by the Authority.

(5) The Chief Executive shall be responsible to the Authority for the performance of his or her functions and the implementation of the Authority's functions.

(6) Such of the functions of the Chief Executive as he or she may specify from time to time may, with the consent of the Authority, be performed by such member of the staff of the Authority as the Chief Executive may authorise in that behalf.

(7) The functions of the Chief Executive may be performed during his or her absence or when the post of Chief Executive is vacant by such member or members of the staff of the Authority as it may from time to time designate for that purpose.

11.—(1) The Authority may appoint such and so many persons to Staff.
be members of its staff as may be approved from time to time by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Finance.

(2) The grades of staff of the Authority and the number in each grade shall be determined by the Authority with the consent of the Minister and the Minister for Finance.

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pt.2 S.11

(3) Section 10(3) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to an appointment under this section.

Superannuation.

12.—(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister and the consent of the Minister for Finance, make a scheme or schemes for the granting of superannuation benefits to or in respect of the members of staff of the Authority, including the Chief Executive.

(2) Every such scheme shall fix the time and conditions of retirement of all persons to or in respect of whom superannuation benefits are payable under the scheme or schemes, and different times and conditions may be fixed in respect of different classes of persons.

(3) Every such scheme may be amended or revoked by a subsequent scheme under this section.

(4) Any scheme submitted by the Authority under this section shall, if approved by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Finance, be carried out by the Authority in accordance with its terms.

(5) (a) Any dispute arising as to the claim of any person to, or the amount of, any superannuation benefit payable in pursuance of a scheme or schemes under this section shall be submitted to the Minister.

(b) The Minister shall refer the dispute to the Minister for Finance, whose decision shall be final.

(6) A superannuation benefit shall not be granted by the Authority to or in respect of a person on his or her ceasing to be Chief Executive or a member of its staff, or any other arrangement be entered into by the Authority for the provision of such a benefit, otherwise than in accordance with a scheme or schemes under this section.

(7) Any scheme under this section, including an amendment of a scheme, shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the scheme is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the scheme is laid before it, the scheme shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

(8) In this section “superannuation benefit” means any pension, gratuity or other allowance payable to or in respect of a person on ceasing to be the Chief Executive or a member of the staff of the Authority.

Investigations by Authority.

13.—(1) Without prejudice to section 39(2), the Authority may of its own motion investigate any security services being provided by any person.

(2) For the purposes of such an investigation the Authority—

(a) may by notice in writing require any person who in its opinion is in possession of information, or has any record or thing in the person’s possession or under the person’s control, that is relevant to the investigation to supply that information, record or thing to the Authority within a period specified in the notice, and Pt.2 S.13

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

- (b) where appropriate, may require the person to attend before it for those purposes within that period.
- (3) The person shall be entitled to the same immunities and privileges in relation to compliance with any requirement mentioned in subsection (2) as if the person were a witness before a court.
- (4) If the person does not comply or comply fully with the requirement within the specified period, the Authority may apply to the District Court, on notice to the person, for an order requiring the person to comply or comply fully with the requirement within a period to be specified by the Court.
- (5) If it appears to the Court, on application by the Authority, that the person has failed, without reasonable excuse (proof of which shall lie on the person), to comply or comply fully with the order, the Court may treat the failure for all purposes as if it were a contempt in the face of the Court.
- (6) The jurisdiction conferred on the District Court by this section may be exercised by the judge of that Court for the time being assigned to the district court district in which the person concerned ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, business or occupation.

14.—(1) For the purposes of this Act the Authority may appoint members of its staff to be inspectors (including a Chief Inspector) for such period and subject to such terms and conditions as the Authority may determine. Inspectors.

(2) Each inspector shall be given a warrant of his or her appointment and, when exercising any power conferred by this Act, shall, on request by any person affected, produce the warrant or a copy thereof, together with a form of personal identification.

15.—(1) An inspector may, for the purposes of obtaining any information in relation to a matter under investigation by the Authority or of otherwise enabling the Authority to exercise its functions under this Act— Power of entry and inspection.

- (a) at all reasonable times enter, inspect, examine and search any place where the inspector has reasonable cause to believe that a security service is being provided,
- (b) make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary to establish whether the relevant provisions of this Act or regulations thereunder are being complied with,
- (c) require the production of any records, books or accounts (whether kept in manual form or otherwise) or any other documents or information which it is necessary for the inspector to see for those purposes and inspect, examine and copy them or require that a copy of them or of any entries in them be provided to him or her,
- (d) take with him or her a member of the Garda Síochána if he or she has reasonable cause to apprehend any serious obstruction in the execution of his or her duty,

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pr.2 S.15

(e) require any person to afford him or her such facilities and assistance within the person's control or responsibilities as are reasonably necessary to enable the inspector to exercise any of the powers conferred on him or her under paragraphs (a), (b) or (c).

(2) An inspector shall not, other than with the consent of the occupier, enter a private dwelling unless he or she has obtained a warrant under subsection (3) authorising the entry.

(3) A judge of the District Court, if satisfied on the sworn information of an inspector that—

(a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that information required by an inspector under this section is held on any premises or any part of any premises, and

(b) an inspector in the exercise of his or her powers under this section has been prevented from entering the premises or any part thereof, may issue a warrant authorising the inspector, accompanied if necessary by other persons, at any time or times within one month from the date of issue of the warrant and on production if so requested of the warrant, to enter, if need be by reasonable force, the premises or part of the premises concerned and exercise all or any of the powers conferred on an inspector by subsection (1).

(4) A person who—

(a) withholds, destroys, conceals or refuses to furnish any information or thing required for the purposes of an investigation by the Authority,

(b) fails or refuses to comply with any requirement of an inspector under this section, or

(c) otherwise obstructs or hinders him or her in the performance of duties under this Act, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

Reports to Minister.

16.—(1) The Authority shall, not later than 30 September in each year, make a report to the Minister on the performance of its functions and on its activities during the preceding year.

(2) The Minister shall cause copies of the report to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.

(3) The report shall be in such form as the Minister may approve and include information in such form and regarding such matters as he or she may direct.

(4) The Authority may from time to time make such other reports to the Minister on the performance of its functions as it thinks fit.

(5) The Authority shall give to the Minister such other information regarding such performance as he or she may from time to time require.

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

(6) For the purposes of subsection (1) the period between the date of the establishment of the Authority and the following 31 December shall be deemed to be the preceding year referred to in that subsection. Pt.2 S.16

17.—(1) Where a member of the Authority, the Chief Executive, a member of the staff of the Authority or a member of an advisory committee, a consultant or an adviser appointed by it has (otherwise than in that capacity) a pecuniary interest or other beneficial interest in, or material to, any matter to be considered by the Authority, he or she shall— Disclosure of interests.

- (f) not be counted towards a quorum during any such consideration or discussion, and
- (g) not vote on any decision relating to the matter.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a person shall be regarded for the purposes of this section as having a beneficial interest if—

- (a) he or she or any connected relative, or any nominee of his or hers or any connected relative, is a member of a company or any other body which has a beneficial interest in, or material to, a matter referred to in that subsection,
- (b) he or she or any connected relative is in partnership with or is in the employment of a person who has a beneficial interest in, or material to, such a matter,
- (c) he or she or any connected relative is a party to any arrangement or agreement (whether or not enforceable) concerning land to which such a matter relates, or
- (d) any connected relative has a beneficial interest in, or material to, such a matter.

(3) For the purposes of this section a person shall not be regarded as having a beneficial interest in, or material to, any matter by reason only of an interest of the person, or of any company or other entity or person mentioned in subsection (2), which is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be regarded as likely to influence a person in considering, discussing or voting on any question with respect to the matter or in performing any function in relation to it.

(4) Where a question arises as to whether or not a course of conduct, if pursued by a person, would be a failure by the person to comply with subsection (1), it shall be determined by the Authority, and particulars of the determination shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting concerned.

(5) Where a disclosure under subsection (1) is made to the Authority or an advisory committee, particulars of the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting concerned.

(6) The Minister, if of opinion that a person mentioned in subsection (1) has contravened that subsection, may remove the person from office or terminate his or her contract, and the person shall thereupon cease to be qualified for membership of the Authority or appointment by it in any capacity.

(7) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(8) In this section “connected relative” means, in relation to a person to whom this section applies, the person’s spouse or partner or the parent, brother, sister or child of the person or the person’s spouse or partner.

Non-disclosure of information.

18.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by law, a person shall not, without the consent of the Authority, disclose any information obtained by him or her while performing, or as a result of having performed, duties as a member of the Authority, the Chief Executive, a member of the staff of the Authority or a member of an advisory committee, a consultant or an adviser appointed by it.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

(3) This section does not apply to the disclosure of information in a report made to the Authority or by the Authority to the Minister.

Grants to Authority.

19.—The Minister may from time to time, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, advance to the Authority out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas such sums as the Minister may determine towards the expenses incurred by the Authority in the performance of its functions.

Membership, etc., of Dáil, Seanad or European Parliament.

20.—(1) Where a member of the Authority—

- (a) accepts nomination as a member of Seanad Éireann,
- (b) is elected as a member of either House of the Oireachtas or to be a representative in the European Parliament, or
- (c) is regarded under Part XIII of the Second Schedule to the European Parliament Elections Act 1997 as having been elected to that Parliament, he or she shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Authority.

(2) Where the Chief Executive or a member of the staff of the Authority is—

- (a) nominated as a member of Seanad Éireann, or

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

- (b) elected as a member of either House of the Oireachtas or to be a representative in the European Parliament, or Pt.2 S.20
- (c) regarded under the said Part XIII as having been elected to that Parliament, he or she shall thereupon stand seconded from employment by the Authority and shall not be paid by, or be entitled to receive from, the Authority any remuneration or allowances in respect of the period commencing on such nomination, election or the date on which he or she is regarded as having been so elected and ending on the date on which he or she ceases to be a member of either such House or a representative in that Parliament.

(3) A person who is for the time being entitled under the Standing Orders of either House of the Oireachtas to sit therein or who is a representative in the European Parliament shall, while so entitled or such a representative, be disqualified for appointment as a member or Chief Executive of the Authority or for employment by the Authority in any capacity.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), that subsection shall be construed as prohibiting, inter alia, the reckoning of a period mentioned in that subsection as service with the Authority for the purposes of any pensions, gratuities or other allowances payable on resignation, retirement or death.

PART 3

LICENCES TO PROVIDE SECURITY SERVICES

21.—(1) An application to the Authority for a licence to provide a security service shall be in the prescribed form and be accompanied by— Application for licence.

- (a) the prescribed fee, and
- (b) such references as to the applicant's character and competence as the Authority may require, and shall contain such other information as may be required by the Authority.

(2) The Authority may require that the applicant's signature be witnessed by a person from within a prescribed category of persons.

(3) Without prejudice to sections 24 and 36, the Authority may—

- (a) require an applicant to furnish such additional information in respect of the applicant's character, financial position and competence, and make such investigations and conduct such examinations in that regard, as it considers necessary,
- (b) require verification by affidavit or otherwise of any information provided by the applicant, and
- (c) require the applicant to supply a certificate by a member of the Garda Síochána not below the rank of superintendent in such form and containing such particulars in relation to the applicant as the Authority may prescribe.

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pr.3 S.21

(4) In this section references to the applicant's character, financial position and competence include references to the character, financial position and competence of—

(a) in the case of a body corporate, the directors, and

(b) in the case of a partnership, the partners, and, in either case, any manager, secretary or other officer of the entity concerned.

Grant or refusal of licence.

22.—(1) Subject to subsection (3) and sections 24 and 25, the Authority may grant a licence to a person to provide a security service.

(2) When deciding whether to grant a licence the Authority shall take into account any information supplied to it under sections 21, 34 and 36.

(3) The Authority shall refuse to grant a licence if satisfied—

(a) if the applicant is an individual, that he or she:

(i) is not a fit and proper person to provide a security service,

(ii) is under 18,

(iii) does not comply with any requirement of this Act or regulations thereunder,

(iv) has not paid the prescribed fee,

(b) if the applicant is a body corporate:

(i) that any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person purporting to act in that capacity is not a fit and proper person to hold such a position in a body corporate which is providing a security service,

(ii) that subparagraph (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (a) applies in respect of the body corporate,

and

(c) if the applicant is a partnership, that one or more than one of subparagraphs (i) to (iv) of paragraph (a) applies or apply in respect of any of the partners.

(4) A licence, unless sooner surrendered or revoked or otherwise ceasing to be in force, shall remain in force for a period of 2 years from the date on which it is issued or for such longer period as may be prescribed.

(5) A licence—

(a) does not confer any right of property, and

(b) may not be transferred or assigned or be mortgaged, charged or otherwise encumbered.

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

23.—(1) Every licence, unless it has been terminated in accordance with this Act, may, subject to sections 24, 25 and 26, be renewed from time to time by the Authority in the prescribed manner. Pt.3
Renewal of licence.

(2) An application for renewal of a licence shall be made within the prescribed time.

(3) If the application is not determined by the Authority before the licence expires, the licence shall continue in force until the application has been so determined.

(4) Sections 21 and 22 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to an application under this section.

24.—(1) In this section—

Tax clearance.

“Act of 1997” means the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997;

“Collector-General” means the Collector-General appointed under section 851 of the Act of 1997;

“person” does not include an individual who provides a security service in the course of an employment but includes—

(a) in the case of a body corporate, the directors, and

(b) in the case of a partnership, the partners;

“tax clearance certificate” means a certificate under section 1095 (as substituted by section 127(b) of the Finance Act 2002) of the Act of 1997.

(2) The Authority shall refuse to grant or renew a licence to or in respect of a person in relation to whom a tax clearance certificate is not in force.

(3) The Authority may nevertheless grant or renew a licence to or in respect of such a person if—

(a) the person has, at least four months before applying for the grant or renewal, applied for a tax clearance certificate and either—

(i) that application has not been determined, or

(ii) it has been refused and an appeal against the refusal has been made under section 1094(7) of the Act of 1997 but not determined,

and

(b) the Authority would, but for subsection (2), have granted or renewed the licence.

(4) The Authority shall notify the Collector-General of the issue of a licence granted or renewed under subsection (3).

(5) Such a licence shall expire—

(a) if the application for a tax clearance certificate is granted or is granted on appeal, on the day on which it would expire

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pr.3 S.24

if the certificate had been in force when the licence was granted or renewed,

(b) if the application is refused and—

- (i) an appeal against the refusal under the said section 1094(7) is not made within the period of 30 days after the refusal, on the expiration of that period, or
- (ii) such an appeal is so made but is not successful, 7 days after the appeal has been determined or finally determined.

(6) The Collector-General shall notify the Authority of the determination of any such application for a tax clearance certificate, of any appeal against a refusal of such an application and of the final determination of any such appeal.

(7) The reference in subsection (3)(a)(ii) to section 1094(7) is to that provision as applied by subsection (6) of section 1095 (as substituted by section 127(b) of the Finance Act 2002) of the Act of 1997.

Documents to accompany certain applications.

25.—The Authority shall refuse to grant an application for a licence or for renewal of a licence—

- (a) by or on behalf of a company, unless the application is accompanied by a certificate of the incorporation of the company, certified by the registrar of companies under section 370(1)(b) of the Companies Act 1963 and dated not earlier than 4 weeks before the date of the application, or
- (b) by or on behalf of a person carrying on business under a name that is not that of the beneficial owner of the business, unless the application is accompanied by a copy of a certificate of registration of the person under the Registration of Business Names Act 1963, certified in accordance with section 16(1)(b) of that Act.

Refusal to renew, suspension, etc., of licence.

26.—(1) Subject to section 27, the Authority may—

- (a) refuse to renew a licence, or
- (b) at any time suspend a licence for a specified period or revoke it, if it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the licensee—

- (i) has supplied information in or in connection with the application for the licence or its renewal that was false or misleading in a material particular,
- (ii) has contravened any provision of this Act or regulations thereunder (whether or not the licensee has been convicted of an offence in relation to the contravention), or
- (iii) is no longer a fit and proper person to provide a security service, or if the Authority would not have granted the licence or renewed it if information obtained subsequent to the date of its grant or renewal had been available at that date.

(2) (a) The Authority shall—

Pt.3 S.26

- (i) refuse to renew a licence, or at any time suspend a licence for a specified period or revoke it, if it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the safety or welfare of any person or persons is or may be at risk from the continuance in force of the licence, and
- (ii) notify the licensee of its decision.

(b) Section 27 does not apply in relation to a decision under this subsection.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1), if the Authority is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the licensee—

- (a) has been guilty of misconduct in the course of providing a security service, or
- (b) has contravened any provision of this Act or regulations thereunder (whether or not the licensee has been convicted of an offence in relation to the contravention),

it may take whichever of the following actions in relation to the licence or licensee is in its opinion appropriate in the circumstances of the case:

- (i) revocation of the licence,
- (ii) suspension of the licence for a specified period,
- (iii) reprimand,
- (iv) warning,
- (v) caution,
- (vi) advice.

(4) A licence which is suspended shall not be in force during the period of its suspension.

(5) A person whose licence has been suspended or revoked shall comply with any directions of the Authority in relation to delivering up to it the person's licence and identity card.

27.—(1) If the Authority proposes to—

Notification to applicant of refusal, etc.

- (a) refuse to grant or renew a licence,
- (b) suspend it for a specified period, or
- (c) revoke it,

it shall notify the applicant or licensee of its proposal and consider any representations that are made to it in writing by the applicant or licensee within 14 days after the notification.

(2) If the Authority, having considered any such representations, decides to refuse to grant or renew a licence or to suspend or revoke it, it shall notify the applicant or licensee of the decision and the grounds for it and of the procedure for appealing against it.

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pt.3
Variation of licensed security service.

28.—(1) A licensee may apply to the Authority for a variation in the kind or kinds of security service to which the licence relates.

(2) Sections 21 and 22 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to the application.

Identity cards.

29.—(1) The Authority shall issue an identity card to each individual who is a licensee.

(2) Each such individual—

(a) shall have the identity card in his or her possession when providing the security service authorised by the licence, and

(b) shall, on request, produce it there and then for inspection by any person for whom the licensee is providing a security service under the licence and permit such a person to inspect it.

(3) A member of the Garda Síochána may require an individual who in the member's opinion is providing a security service to produce there and then for inspection by the member the identity card issued to the individual in connection with the grant of a licence authorising the provision of the service.

(4) An individual who produces an identity card in accordance with subsection (3) shall permit the person to whom it is produced to inspect it.

(5) Where an individual does not comply with subsection (3) or (4), the member of the Garda Síochána concerned may require the individual to give his or her name and address.

(6) The powers conferred on a member of the Garda Síochána by subsections (3) and (5) may also be exercised by an inspector.

(7) (a) In this subsection “identity card” includes an identity card or other form of identification issued by a corresponding authority.

(b) An individual shall not—

(i) produce for inspection an identity card issued to another individual, or

(ii) with intent to deceive, make or use a document purporting to be an identity card, alter an identity card or use an altered identity card.

(c) An individual who contravenes paragraph (b) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(8) A member of the Garda Síochána may arrest without warrant—

(a) an individual who refuses to produce the identity card issued to him or her when required to do so under subsection (3) or does not permit the person to whom an identity card is produced under subsection (3) to inspect it,

- (b) an individual who—
- (i) does not give his or her name and address when required by a person under subsection (5) to do so, or
 - (ii) gives a name or address which that person reasonably believes to be false,
- or
- (c) an individual whom the member, with reasonable cause, suspects of having contravened subsection (7)(b).
- (9) An individual who—
- (a) contravenes subsection (2)(a) or (4), or
 - (b) does not comply with a request under subsection (2)(b) or a requirement under subsection (3) or (5), is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

(10) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence under subsection (2) or (3) for the defendant to prove that he or she had a reasonable excuse for not complying with the subsection concerned.

30.—(1) An individual who is a member of a prescribed category of licensees shall, when providing a security service, wear an identity badge. Identity badges.

- (2) An individual shall not—
- (i) wear an identity badge relating to another individual, or
 - (ii) with intent to deceive, make or use a badge purporting to be an identity badge, alter an identity badge or use an altered identity badge.

(3) An individual who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(4) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) for the defendant to prove that he or she had a reasonable excuse for not complying with the subsection concerned.

(5) In this section—

“identity badge” means a badge—

- (a) which clearly indicates the licence number of the licensee concerned,
- (b) whose form, content and size are as prescribed for identity badges to be worn by members of the prescribed category of licensees concerned, and
- (c) which, when worn, is clearly visible;

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pr.3 S.30

“prescribed category” means a category prescribed for the purposes of this section.

Issue of duplicate licence or identity card.

31.—The Authority, if satisfied that a licence or an identity card has been lost or destroyed, may issue a duplicate thereof on payment of the prescribed fee.

Surrender of licence.

32.—(1) Where—

(a) a licence is suspended or revoked or it expires, or

(b) a licensee ceases to provide a security service,

the licensee shall forthwith surrender to the Authority in the prescribed manner the licence and any identity card issued to the licensee.

(2) On the suspension, revocation or expiration of a licence, an inspector may seize and retain the licence and any identity card so issued.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

Register of licensees.

33.—(1) The Authority shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of this section, establish and maintain for the purposes of this Act a register of licensees to be known as the Private Security Register and which is referred to in this Act as “the Register”.

(2) The Register shall be in such form, and contain such entries and additions, as may be prescribed from time to time.

(3) The Register shall be kept at the offices of the Authority and be made available for inspection by any person free of charge during office hours.

(4) A copy of an entry in the Register shall, on request, be issued by the Authority on payment of such fee (if any), not exceeding the reasonable cost of making the copy, as may be prescribed.

(5) In any proceedings a document purporting to be a copy of such an entry and to be certified by an officer of the Authority to be a true copy of the entry shall, without proof of the signature of the person purporting so to certify the document or that he or she was such an officer, be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is shown, be deemed to be a true copy of the entry and to be evidence of the matters stated in it.

(6) The Authority shall cause the Register to be printed and published within one month after the establishment of the Register and annually thereafter.

(7) The Authority shall, when and as often as the Register is published, cause a copy of it to be furnished to every Garda station as soon as may be, and the copy shall be available for inspection at those stations by any person during normal business hours.

(2) Subsection (1) applies, with the necessary modifications, in relation to a body corporate and an unincorporated body of persons as it applies in relation to an individual.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both, or

(b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or both.

Prohibition of employment of unlicensed person.

38.—(1) A person shall not employ a person, or engage an independent contractor, to provide a security service if that person or the contractor is required to, but does not, hold a licence to provide the service.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both, or

(b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or both.

(3) In any proceedings for a contravention of subsection (1) it is a defence to prove that the person providing the security service produced to the defendant—

(a) if the person is an individual, his or her identity card or licence, or

(b) if not, the person's licence.

PART 4

COMPLAINTS AGAINST LICENSEES

Investigation of complaints.

39.—(1) Any person may make a complaint in writing to the Authority against a licensee in relation to the conduct of the licensee in the course of providing a security service, including an alleged contravention by the licensee of any provision of this Act or regulations made thereunder.

(2) On receipt of such a complaint, the Authority, if satisfied that the complaint is made in good faith and is not frivolous or vexatious, shall investigate it, giving the licensee and the complainant an opportunity to be heard during the investigation.

(3) On completion of the investigation—

(a) the Authority may decide not to uphold the complaint;

(b) if the Authority is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the licensee—

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

- (i) has been guilty of misconduct in the course of providing a security service, or
- (ii) has contravened any provision of this Act or regulations thereunder (whether or not the licensee has been convicted of an offence in relation to the contravention),

Pt.4 S.39

it may take whichever of the following actions in relation to the licence or licensee is in its opinion appropriate in the circumstances of the case:

- (I) revocation of the licence,
- (II) suspension of the licence for a specified period,
- (III) reprimand,
- (IV) warning,
- (V) caution,
- (VI) advice,

and shall notify the complainant and licensee of its decision;

- (c) if the Authority is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the safety or welfare of any person or persons is or may be at risk from the continuance in force of the licence, it shall revoke the licence or suspend it for a specified period and notify the complainant and licensee of its decision, and in such a case section 27 does not apply.

(4) For the purposes of investigating a complaint, an inspector may enter the premises of a person providing a security service and inspect the books, documents and records of the person, and section 15 shall apply, with any necessary modifications, in relation to such entry and inspection.

PART 5

APPEALS AGAINST DECISIONS OF AUTHORITY

40.—(1) There stands established a body to be known as the Private Security Appeal Board (in this Act referred to as “the Appeal Board”), or in the Irish language An Bord Achomhairc um Shlándaíl Phríobháideach, to hear and determine appeals against decisions of the Authority.

Private Security
Appeal Board.

(2) The Appeal Board shall be independent in the performance of its functions.

(3) The provisions of Schedule 2 shall have effect in relation to the Appeal Board.

41.—(1) Within 3 months after the date on which an appeal is determined by the Appeal Board any party to the appeal may appeal to the High Court on any question of law arising from the determination.

(2) The Court may affirm the determination or set it aside and make any other determination the Appeal Board could have made or remit the case to the Appeal Board for further consideration.

(3) An appeal may not be brought from a decision of the Court under this section except by its leave.

PART 6

SECURITY SERVICES PROVIDED BY CERTAIN PERSONS
FROM EU MEMBER STATES

Interpretation.

42.—In this Part—

“corresponding authority” means an authority in a member state of the European Communities which—

- (a) has functions that substantially correspond to those of the Authority, and
- (b) is designated by the Authority as such an authority;

“relevant person” means a person who or which—

- (a) holds from a corresponding authority a licence or other form of authorisation that is in force and that authorises the person to provide a security service that corresponds to a security service provided by one of the persons mentioned in the definition of “security service” in section 2(1),
- (b) proposes to provide or is providing that security service in the State, and
- (c) is not prohibited by the Authority from providing such a security service.

Application of Act to relevant persons.

43.—For the purposes of controlling and supervising relevant persons in the interests of the protection of the public and investigating and adjudicating on any complaints against them this Act shall have effect in relation to such persons with the modifications specified in Schedule 3 and with any other necessary modifications.

Prior notification by relevant person of conviction or criminal proceedings.

44.—(1) A relevant person who has been convicted of an offence (other than a prescribed offence), or against whom proceedings for such an offence are pending, under the law of the State or another state shall, before providing a security service in the State, notify the Authority in the prescribed manner of the conviction or proceedings and supply the Authority with prescribed particulars thereof.

(2) Subject to section 27, on receiving the notification or becoming otherwise aware of the conviction or proceedings the Authority may, if in its opinion the relevant person is not a fit and proper person to provide a security service in the State, prohibit the person from providing such a security service or so prohibit the person for a specified period.

(3) A relevant person who contravenes subsection (1) or who provides a security service in contravention of a prohibition under subsection (2) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both. Pt.6 S.44

(4) A person shall not be convicted of an offence under this section if the court is satisfied that, in the case of a person who has been convicted of an offence, or against whom proceedings for an offence are pending, in a place other than the State, the offence does not correspond with any offence under the law of the State.

(5) This section is without prejudice to section 36, as modified by paragraph 9 of Schedule 3.

45.—Subject to section 27, the Authority may at any time, if satisfied on reasonable grounds that a relevant person is not or no longer a fit and proper person to provide a security service in the State, prohibit the person from providing such a security service or so prohibit the person for a specified period. Prohibition of relevant person from providing security service.

46.—(1) The Authority shall notify the corresponding authority concerned of— Relations with corresponding authorities.

(a) any action taken by the Authority under section 26, 39, 44 or 45 in relation to a relevant person,

(b) the taking of any appeal by such a person and the result of any such appeal or any subsequent proceedings, and

(c) any offence under this Act committed by a relevant person.

(2) The Authority shall collaborate with and assist corresponding authorities with a view to promoting the effective performance by the Authority and those authorities of their functions in relation to relevant persons.

(3) The Authority shall publish in Iris Oifigiúil a list of corresponding authorities designated for the time being by it.

47.—If a licence or other form of authorisation issued by a corresponding authority to a relevant person is revoked or suspended by it— Effect of revocation or suspension of relevant person's licence or other authorisation.

(a) this Part and Schedule 3 shall cease to have effect in relation to that person, and

(b) the relevant person shall be treated as a person who is not the holder of a licence, with effect from the date of revocation or during the period of suspension.

PART 7

MISCELLANEOUS

48.—(1) Any person who— Offences.

(a) makes any false or misleading statement in any application or notice of appeal under this Act or in any document required thereunder or otherwise gives false or misleading information to the Authority or Appeal Board,

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pt.7 S.48

- (b) being a licensee who has been notified of the suspension or revocation of the licence, produces the licence or identity card to any other person with a view to providing a security service for that person, or
- (c) being a licensee, fails or refuses to keep any prescribed records or to furnish to the Authority any prescribed information or returns, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(2) Where—

- (a) an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate, and
- (b) the offence is proved to have been committed with the consent, connivance or approval of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of, a person who was either—
 - (i) a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
 - (ii) a person purporting to act in any such capacity, that person is also guilty of an offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she were guilty of the first-mentioned offence.

(3) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (2) shall apply in relation to the acts or defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if he or she were a director or manager of the body corporate.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to offences under this Act committed by an unincorporated body.

(5) The Authority may bring and prosecute summary proceedings for an offence under this Act.

Receipt of notification or notice.

49.—(1) A notification or notice to be given to a person by the Authority or Appeal Board under this Act shall be given to the person in one of the following ways:

- (a) by delivering it to the person;
- (b) by leaving it at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or carries on business;
- (c) by sending it by prepaid registered post in an envelope addressed to the person at that address;
- (d) where the person has given an address for service of notices, by leaving it at the address for such service or sending it

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

by prepaid registered post in an envelope addressed to the person at that address; Pt.7 S.49

(e) where—

- (i) the Authority or Appeal Board considers that notice should be given immediately, and
- (ii) a fax machine is located at an address mentioned in paragraph (b) or (d), by sending it by fax to that machine.

- (2) (a) When a notification or notice is sent by prepaid registered post, it is deemed to be received by the person on the third working day after the day on which it was so sent.
- (b) When sent by fax, it is deemed to be received by the person when the sender's fax machine generates a message confirming successful transmission of the notice.

(3) For the purposes of this section a company registered under the Companies Acts 1963 to 2003 is deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office and every other body corporate or unincorporated body to be so resident at its principal office or place of business.

50.—(1) This section applies to a decision of the Authority—

Taking effect of decision of Authority.

- (a) refusing to renew a licence,
- (b) suspending or revoking a licence, or
- (c) issuing a reprimand, warning or caution or an advice.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a decision of the Authority to which this section applies takes effect on the expiration of the period within which an appeal against it may be brought, unless an appeal is duly brought, in which case the decision stands suspended pending the outcome of the appeal proceedings (including proceedings under section 41).

(3) A decision of the Authority to revoke or suspend a licence, if taken because in its opinion the safety or welfare of any person or persons is or may be at risk from the continuance in force of the licence, takes effect when notification of the decision, stating the grounds on which it was taken, is received or deemed to be received by the licensee.

51.—(1) The Minister may by regulations make such incidental or consequential provision as he or she considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of giving this Act full effect.

Regulations.

(2) The Authority, with the consent of the Minister, may by regulations provide for any matter referred to in this Act as prescribed and for—

- (a) the categories of licences which may be issued by the Authority,
- (b) the procedures governing—

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

Pr.7 S.51

- (i) the grant and renewal of licences (including time limits in respect thereof),
 - (ii) the surrender of licences and identity cards, and
 - (iii) the processing of complaints under section 39,
- (c) the form of licences and identity cards,
- (d) the standards to be observed in the provision of security services by licensees or particular categories of licensees,
- (e) the qualifications for licences,
- (f) the records to be kept and the information and returns to be furnished by licensees, and
- (g) different fees, or exemptions from the payment of fees, or waiving, remitting or refunding fees (in whole or in part), in different circumstances or classes of circumstances or in different cases or classes of cases.
- (3) The Authority shall submit a draft of any proposed regulations to the Minister for his or her consideration.

Transitional provision.

52.—(1) In this section, “critical date” means, in relation to a person who is providing a security service, the date on which the person is required by this Act to hold a licence.

- (2) This Act does not apply in relation to a person—
- (a) who, immediately before the critical date, was providing a security service,
 - (b) who intends to continue to provide the service after that date,
 - (c) who has applied by that date to the Authority for a licence, and
 - (d) whose application has not been determined.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) an application for a licence is to be taken as not to have been determined—
- (a) if the applicant has not been notified that the Authority has decided to refuse to grant the licence, or
 - (b) where the applicant has been so notified, until—
 - (i) one month has elapsed after the notification and the decision has not been appealed, or
 - (ii) any appeal against the decision has been finally determined.
- (4) (a) Where the Authority has refused the application, it may, if in its opinion the safety or welfare of any person or persons is or may be at risk from the continued provision of the security service by the applicant, declare that this section shall no longer apply in relation to the applicant and give notice to the applicant of its decision to make the declaration, stating the grounds on which the decision was made. Pr.7 S.52

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

- (b) This section shall cease to apply in relation to the applicant when the applicant receives or is deemed to receive the notice.

SCHEDULE 1

PRIVATE SECURITY AUTHORITY

Advisory committees, consultants and advisers

- 1.—(1) (a) The Authority, subject to the approval of the Minister, may from time to time appoint such and so many advisory committees and such and so many consultants or advisers as it may consider necessary to assist it in the performance of its functions.
- (b) The approval of the Minister is subject to the consent of the Minister for Finance in respect of fees or expenses to which subparagraph (3) relates.
- (2) The appointment of a person to an advisory committee or as a consultant or adviser shall be for such period and subject to such terms and conditions as the Authority may consider appropriate.
- (3) Any fees or expenses which have been agreed by the Minister, with the prior consent of the Minister for Finance, and are due to a member of an advisory committee or to a consultant or an adviser shall be paid out of moneys at the disposal of the Authority.
- (4) An advisory committee shall include persons who have special knowledge and experience related to the purposes of the committee concerned.
- (5) The Authority may at any time dissolve an advisory committee.
- (6) The Authority shall ensure the maintenance of an appropriate balance as between men and women in an advisory committee's membership.

Meetings of Authority

- 2.—(1) The Authority shall hold such and so many meetings as may be necessary for the performance of its functions but shall hold at least one meeting in each quarter of the year.
- (2) The Minister may fix the date, time and place of the first meeting of the Authority.
- (3) At a meeting of the Authority—
- (a) the quorum shall be 4 or such other number (not being less than 4) as the Authority may from time to time determine,
- (b) the chairperson shall, if present, be chairperson of the meeting,
- (c) if and so long as the chairperson is not present or the office of chairperson is vacant, the members present shall appoint one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting,
- (d) each member present shall have one vote,
- (e) every question shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting on the question, and

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

- (f) if there is an equal division of votes, the chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. SCH.1
- (4) Subject to this Act or regulations thereunder, the Authority may regulate its own procedure.

Vacancies in membership

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph 2(3)(a), the Authority and any committee (including an advisory committee) appointed by it may act notwithstanding a vacancy or vacancies in its membership.

(2) Where a vacancy occurs, the Minister or the Authority, as the case may be, shall take steps to fill it as soon as practicable.

Accounts and audits

4.—(1) The Chief Executive, with the agreement of the Authority, shall—

- (a) submit estimates of income and expenditure to the Minister in such form, in respect of such periods and at such times as may be specified by the Minister, and
- (b) supply to the Minister any information which the Minister may require regarding those estimates and also regarding the proposals and plans of the Authority in respect of a period specified by the Minister.

(2) The Chief Executive, under the direction of the Authority, shall keep, in such form and in respect of such accounting periods as may be approved of by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Finance, all proper and usual accounts of moneys received and spent by the Authority, including an income and expenditure account and a balance sheet.

(3) (a) The Authority, the Chief Executive and any relevant member of the staff shall, whenever so requested by the Minister, permit any person appointed by the Minister to examine the accounts of the Authority in respect of any financial year or other period and shall facilitate any such examination, and the Authority shall pay to the Minister such fee therefor as may be fixed by the Minister.

(b) In this subsection, “relevant member of the staff” means a member of the staff of the Authority to whom duties relating to those accounts have been duly assigned.

(4) (a) The accounts of the Authority shall be approved by it as soon as practicable (but not later than 3 months after the end of the accounting period to which they relate) and submitted by it to the Comptroller and Auditor General for audit.

(b) A copy of the accounts and the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General on them shall be presented to the members of the Authority and the Minister as soon as practicable, and the Minister shall cause a copy of the accounts and report to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.

Accountability of Chief Executive to Public Accounts Committee

5.—(1) The Chief Executive shall, whenever so required by the Committee of Dáil Éireann established under the Standing Orders

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

SCH.1

of Dáil Éireann to examine and report to Dáil Éireann on the appropriation accounts and reports of the Comptroller and Auditor General, give evidence to the Committee on—

- (a) the regularity and propriety of the transactions recorded or required to be recorded in the accounts kept under paragraph 4(2),
- (b) the economy and efficiency of the Authority in the use of its resources,
- (c) the systems, procedures and practices employed by it for the purpose of evaluating the effectiveness of its operations, and
- (d) any matter affecting it which is referred to in a special report of the Comptroller and Auditor General under section 11(2) of the Comptroller and Auditor General (Amendment) Act 1993 or in any other report by him or her (in so far as it relates to a matter specified in clause (a), (b) or (c)) that is laid before Dáil Éireann.

(2) In giving evidence to the Committee, the Chief Executive shall not question or express an opinion on the merits of any policy of the Government or a Minister of the Government or on the merits of the objectives of any such policy.

Accountability to other Oireachtas Committees

6.—(1) In this paragraph, “Committee” means a committee appointed by either House of the Oireachtas or jointly by both Houses of the Oireachtas (other than the Committee referred to in paragraph 5 or the Committee on Members’ Interests of Seanad Éireann) or a subcommittee of such a committee.

(2) Subject to subparagraph (3), the Chief Executive shall, at the request in writing of a Committee, attend before it to give account for the general administration of the Authority.

(3) The Chief Executive shall not be required to give account before a Committee for any matter which is or has been or may at a future time be the subject of proceedings before a court or tribunal in the State.

(4) The Chief Executive, if of the opinion that a matter in respect of which he or she is requested to give an account before a Committee is a matter to which subparagraph (3) applies, shall inform the Committee in writing of that opinion and the reasons for it, unless the information is conveyed to the Committee at a time when the Chief Executive is before it.

(5) Where the Chief Executive has informed a Committee of his or her opinion in accordance with subparagraph (4) and the Committee does not withdraw its request in so far as it relates to a matter the subject of that opinion—

- (a) the Chief Executive may, not later than 21 days after being informed by the Committee of its decision not to withdraw the request, apply to the High Court in a summary manner to determine whether the matter is one to which subparagraph (3) applies, or

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

(b) the Chairperson of the Committee may, on behalf of the SCH.1
Committee, make such an application, and the High Court may so determine.

(6) Pending determination of an application under subparagraph (5), the Chief Executive shall not attend before the Committee to give account for the matter the subject of the application.

(7) If the High Court determines that the matter concerned is one to which subparagraph (3) applies, the Committee shall withdraw its request in so far as it relates to that matter but, if the High Court determines that that subparagraph does not apply, the Chief Executive shall attend before the Committee to give account for it.

Seal of Authority

7.—(1) The Authority shall, as soon as may be after its establishment, provide itself with a seal.

(2) The seal of the Authority, when applied to a document, may be authenticated by the signatures—

(a) of the chairperson or of another member authorised by it to act in that behalf, and

(b) of the Chief Executive or of a member of the staff of the Authority so authorised.

(3) Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by an individual, would not require to be under seal may be entered into or executed on behalf of the Authority by any person generally or specially authorised by the Authority for that purpose.

(4) Judicial notice shall be taken of the seal of the Authority.

(5) In any proceedings, a document purporting to be made or issued by the Authority and to be sealed with its seal, duly authenticated in accordance with subparagraph (2), shall be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is shown, be deemed to be such a document and to be evidence of the matters stated in it.

Prohibition of improper influence

8.—(1) A person who communicates with a member of the Authority or the Chief Executive or a member of the staff of the Authority for the purpose of influencing improperly any decision to be taken by the Authority in the performance of its functions is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

(2) If the person communicated with is of opinion that the communication is in contravention of subparagraph (1), he or she shall not entertain it further and shall immediately inform the Authority in writing of its substance, and the Authority shall acknowledge in writing the receipt of such information.

Fees payable to Authority

9.—(1) Any application in respect of which a fee is payable shall not be dealt with by the Authority unless the fee has been received by it.

(2) Such fees shall be paid into, or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in accordance with the directions of the Minister for Finance, and the Public Offices Fees Act 1879 shall not apply in respect of them.

SCHEDULE 2

PRIVATE SECURITY APPEAL BOARD

GENERAL

Membership

1.—The Appeal Board shall consist of a chairperson and such and so many other members as the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, considers necessary from time to time for the expeditious discharge of its functions.

Appointment

2.—The chairperson and other members of the Appeal Board shall be appointed by the Government and, subject to this Schedule, shall hold office on such terms and conditions as the Government may determine.

Chairperson

3.—(1) (a) The chairperson shall be a practising barrister, or a practising solicitor, of not less than 7 years' standing.

(b) A chairperson who ceases to be such a barrister or solicitor during his or her term of office as chairperson shall thereupon cease to be chairperson and a member of the Appeal Board.

(2) It shall be the function of the chairperson to ensure the effective performance by the Appeal Board of its functions.

(3) The chairperson, if of opinion that the conduct of a member has been such as to bring the Appeal Board into disrepute or has been otherwise prejudicial to the effective performance of the Appeal Board's functions, may—

(a) require the member to attend for interview and, on the member so attending, inform the member privately of that opinion, or

(b) otherwise investigate the matter, and report to the Minister the outcome of the interview or investigation if the chairperson considers it appropriate to do so.

Term of office

4.—(1) Subject to this paragraph—

(a) the chairperson shall hold office for a period of 4 years, and

(b) any other member of the Board shall hold office for such period, not exceeding 4 years, as shall be specified by the Government when appointing the member, and may in each case be reappointed by the Government for a second or subsequent term of office.

(2) A member may resign from the Appeal Board by letter addressed to the Secretary General to the Government, and the resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of the letter.

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

(3) A member shall, unless he or she sooner dies, resigns or otherwise ceases to be a member, hold office as such member until the expiration of his or her term of office. SCH.2

(4) A member shall vacate office on attaining the age of 70 years.

(5) Where a member—

(a) accepts nomination as a member of Seanad Éireann,

(b) is nominated as a candidate for election as a member of either House of the Oireachtas or to be a representative in the European Parliament, or

(c) is regarded, under Part XIII of the Second Schedule to the European Parliament Elections Act 1997, as having been elected to that Parliament, he or she shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Appeal Board.

(6) The Government may for stated reasons at any time remove a member from office for misbehaviour or where it considers that—

(a) the member has become incapable through ill health of effectively performing his or her functions as a member, or

(b) the member's removal is necessary for the effective performance by the Appeal Board of its functions.

(7) A member shall cease to be a member on—

(a) being adjudicated bankrupt,

(b) making a composition or arrangement with creditors,

(c) being sentenced to imprisonment on conviction on indictment, or

(d) ceasing to be ordinarily resident in the State.

Remuneration, etc. of members

5.—Members of the Appeal Board shall be paid such remuneration (if any) and allowances for expenses as the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, may determine.

Procedure of Board

6.—(1) The Appeal Board shall hold such and so many meetings as may be necessary for the effective performance of its functions.

(2) At a meeting of the Appeal Board—

(a) the quorum shall be 3,

(b) the chairperson shall, if present, be chairperson of the meeting,

(c) if and so long as the chairperson is not present or the office of chairperson is vacant, the members present shall appoint one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting,

(d) each member present shall have one vote,

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

SCH.2

(e) every question shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting on the question, and

(f) if there is an equal division of votes, the chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(3) Subject to this Act and regulations thereunder, the Appeal Board may regulate its own procedure.

(4) Subject to subparagraphs (5) and (6), the Appeal Board may perform any of its functions through or by the chairperson or any other member or other person who has been duly authorised by the Appeal Board in that behalf.

(5) A member of the Appeal Board may finally determine a particular case only if it has been considered at a meeting of the Board before the relevant authorisation is given.

(6) The Appeal Board may not authorise a person who is not a member to determine finally a particular case.

(7) A decision of the Appeal Board on an appeal may be by a majority of its members.

Vacancies in membership

7.—(1) Subject to paragraph 6(2)(a), the Appeal Board may act notwithstanding a vacancy or vacancies in its membership.

(2) Where a vacancy occurs, the Minister shall take steps to fill the vacancy as soon as practicable.

Secretary of Board

8.—An officer of the Minister who is an established civil servant for the purposes of the Civil Service Regulation Acts 1956 to 1996 and who is seconded to the Appeal Board on a whole-time or part-time basis shall act as its secretary.

Non-disclosure of information

9.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by law, a person shall not, without the consent of the Appeal Board, disclose information obtained by the person in his or her capacity as a member or the secretary of the Appeal Board.

(2) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

Prohibition of improper influence

10.—(1) A person who communicates with a member or the secretary of the Appeal Board for the purpose of influencing improperly either consideration by it of an appeal or any decision of the Appeal Board in relation to an appeal is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

(2) If the member or secretary is of opinion that any communication is in contravention of subparagraph (1), he or she shall not entertain it further and shall immediately inform the Appeal Board in writing of its substance, and the Appeal Board shall acknowledge in writing the receipt of such information.

11.—Section 16 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to the Appeal Board as it applies to the Authority.

Disclosure of Interests

12.—Section 17 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to a member and the secretary of the Appeal Board as it applies in relation to a member of the Authority.

PART 2

APPEALS

General

13.—The Appeal Board shall, as far as practicable, ensure that appeals are dealt with and determined expeditiously.

Notice of appeal

14.—(1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Authority—

- (a) refusing to grant a licence or renewal of a licence,
- (b) suspending or revoking a licence,
- (c) issuing a reprimand, warning or caution or an advice,
- (d) refusing a variation in the kind or kinds of security services to which a licence relates, or
- (e) not to uphold a complaint under section 39, may, within one month after the date of receipt of notification of the decision, appeal to the Appeal Board against it by serving on the Appeal Board a notice of appeal which complies with paragraph 15(1).

(2) The notice of appeal may be served—

- (a) by sending it by registered post to the Appeal Board,
- (b) by leaving it during normal office hours at the office of the Appeal Board with a person who is apparently its employee, or
- (c) by such other means as may be prescribed.

(3) The Appeal Board shall not consider an appeal if the relevant notice of appeal is received by it later than the expiration of the period of one month referred to in subparagraph (1) or if or so long as the notice does not comply with the requirements of paragraph 15(1).

(4) An appeal shall be grounded on the record of the decision to which the appeal relates, on the information contained in the notice of appeal, on any observations of the Authority given at the request of the Board on any matter arising on the decision or that information and on any other information received by the Board on the hearing of the appeal.

(5) The appeal, if not withdrawn, shall be determined by the Board—

[No. 12.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [2004.]

SCH.2

- (a) by affirming the decision of the Authority to which the appeal relates, or
 - (b) by substituting its determination for that decision, which shall thereupon stand annulled.
- (6) The Authority shall be a party to an appeal.
- (7) The Appeal Board shall serve notice of its determination on each party to the appeal.

Notice of appeal requirements

15.—(1) The notice of appeal shall be in writing and state—

- (a) the name and address of the appellant,
- (b) the subject matter of the appeal,
- (c) the appellant's interest in its outcome,
- (d) the grounds of the appeal and the reasons, considerations and arguments on which they are based, and shall be accompanied by such fee, if any, as may be specified by the Appeal Board and by such documents relating to the appeal as the appellant considers necessary or appropriate.

(2) The requirement under subparagraph (1)(d) shall apply whether or not the appellant requests, or proposes to request in accordance with paragraph 21(2), an oral hearing of the appeal.

(3) Unless requested to do so by the Appeal Board, an appellant shall not be entitled to elaborate in writing on, or make further submissions in writing in relation to, the grounds of appeal stated in the notice of appeal or to submit further grounds of appeal, and any such elaboration, submissions or further grounds received by the Appeal Board shall not be considered by it.

(4) Without prejudice to paragraph 20, the Appeal Board shall not consider any documents submitted by an appellant at the appeal other than those which accompanied the notice of appeal.

Documents to be supplied to Appeal Board by Authority

16.—(1) The Appeal Board shall, as soon as practicable after receiving a notice of appeal, send a copy of the notice to the Authority by post.

(2) The Authority shall, within 14 days after receiving the copy of the notice, submit to the Appeal Board a copy of—

- (a) the application for the licence, or renewal of the licence, concerned and any other information received or obtained from the applicant in that regard,
- (b) any report prepared for the Authority or other relevant documents or information in its possession in relation to its dealing with the matter which is the subject of the appeal,
- (c) the record of the decision of the Authority which is the subject of the appeal, and
- (d) the notification of the decision to the applicant.

17.—(1) The Authority may make submissions or observations in writing to the Appeal Board in relation to the appeal within one month after receiving the copy of the notice of appeal from the Appeal Board, and any such submissions or observations received by the Appeal Board after the expiration of that period shall not be considered by it.

(2) Where no submissions or observations have been received within the period referred to in subparagraph (1), the Appeal Board may, without further notice to the Authority, determine the appeal.

(3) Unless requested to do so by the Appeal Board, the Authority shall not be entitled to elaborate in writing on any submissions or observations made in accordance with subparagraph (1) or make any further submissions or observations in writing in relation to the appeal, and any such elaboration or further submissions or observations shall not be considered by the Appeal Board.

Appeals against decisions on complaints under section 39

18.—(1) Where an appeal is brought by a licensee or complainant against a decision by the Authority on a complaint against the licensee under section 39, the complainant or licensee (the “other person”) shall be a party to the appeal.

(2) The Appeal Board shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the notice of appeal, send a copy of the notice to the other person.

(3) Paragraph 17 shall apply in relation to the other person as if references in that paragraph to the Authority were references to that person.

Submissions by person not party to appeal

19.—(1) A person who is not a party to an appeal may make submissions or observations in writing to the Appeal Board in relation to it.

(2) Such submissions or observations may be made within one month after receipt of the notice of appeal by the Appeal Board, and any such submissions or observations received by it after the expiration of that period shall not be considered by it.

(3) Unless requested to do so by the Appeal Board, the person making such submissions or observations shall not be entitled to elaborate in writing on them or to make further submissions or observations in writing in relation to the appeal, and any such elaboration or further submissions or observations shall not be considered by the Appeal Board.

Further information required by Appeal Board

20.—(1) Where the Appeal Board is of the opinion that any document or information is necessary for the purpose of enabling it to determine an appeal, it shall serve on any party to the appeal or other person who has made submissions or observations to the Appeal Board in relation to it a notice—

- (a) requiring the party or person concerned, within a period specified in the notice (being not less than 14 days beginning on the date of service of the notice) to submit to it such documents or information as are specified in the notice, and

(b) stating that, if the documents or information are not received by it before the expiration of the specified period, it may determine the appeal after the expiration of that period without further notice to the party or person concerned.

(2) A person who refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under subparagraph (1)(a) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000.

(3) Where a notice has been served on a person under this paragraph, the Appeal Board, at any time after the expiration of the period specified in the notice, may, whether or not the notice has been complied with, determine the appeal without further notice to the person.

Hearing of appeal

21.—(1) Sittings of the Appeal Board shall normally be held in private.

(2) Subject to subparagraphs (3) and (4), the Appeal Board, of its own motion or at the request of a party, may in its absolute discretion conduct an oral hearing of an appeal.

(3) The Appeal Board in conducting an oral hearing—

(a) may take evidence on oath and for that purpose may administer oaths, and

(b) may by notice in writing require any person to attend at such time and place as is specified in the notice to give evidence in relation to any matter in issue at the hearing or to produce any relevant documents in his or her possession or under his or her control.

(4) A person referred to in subparagraph (3)(b) shall be entitled to the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before a court.

(5) An oral hearing may be conducted on behalf of the Appeal Board by one or more than one of its members.

(6) A request by a party for an oral hearing—

(a) shall be made in writing to the Appeal Board,

(b) subject to clause (c), shall be made within the period of one month referred to in paragraph 14(1),

(c) (i) where the request is by the Authority, shall be made within the period of one month referred to in paragraph 17(1), or

(ii) where the request is by the person referred to in paragraph 18(1) as the “other person”, shall be made within one month of the notice of appeal being received by that person.

(7) The Appeal Board shall not consider a request for an oral hearing made later than the expiry of the relevant period referred to in subparagraph (6).

(8) Where the Appeal Board is requested to conduct an oral hearing and decides to determine the appeal without such a hearing, it shall serve notice of its decision on each party to the appeal and on any person who, in accordance with paragraph 20, made submissions or observations to the Board in relation to it. SCH.2

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

Expenses of persons attending before Appeal Board

22.—The reasonable travelling and subsistence expenses of any person attending before the Appeal Board in accordance with paragraph 21(3)(b) shall be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

Dismissal of frivolous, etc. appeals

23.—The Appeal Board shall dismiss any appeal which in its opinion is frivolous, vexatious or without substance or foundation.

Withdrawal of appeal

24.—An appellant may withdraw an appeal by notice in writing to the Appeal Board at any time before the appeal is determined.

Delayed or abandoned appeals

25.—(1) Where the Appeal Board is of opinion—

- (a) that proceedings on an appeal have been unnecessarily delayed by the conduct of the appellant, or
- (b) that an application for a licence, or the renewal of a licence, to which the appeal relates has been abandoned, it may serve on the appellant a notice stating that it is of that opinion and requiring the appellant, within a period specified in the notice (being not less than 14 or more than 28 days after the date of service of the notice) to make a submission in writing to it as to why the appeal should not be treated as having been withdrawn.

(2) At any time after the expiration of the period specified in a notice which has been served under subparagraph (1), the Appeal Board may, after considering any submissions made to it pursuant to that subparagraph—

- (a) declare that the appeal and, where appropriate, the application is to be treated as having been withdrawn, or
- (b) determine the appeal.

(3) Where under subparagraph (2)(a) the Appeal Board declares that an appeal or application is to be treated as having been withdrawn, then as the case may be—

- (a) the appeal is deemed to have been withdrawn and accordingly shall not be determined by the Appeal Board, or
- (b) notwithstanding any previous decision relating to the application, a licence shall not be granted or renewed as a result of it.

Date of receipt of certain notices, etc.

26.—Appeals, notices of appeal, submissions, observations, requests, documents or information, which are required by or under this Act to be made or submitted to the Appeal Board within a specified period shall, if its offices are closed on the last day of the period, be regarded as having been received before the expiration of the period if received by it on the next following day on which its offices are open.

SCHEDULE 3

MODIFICATIONS OF ACT IN ITS APPLICATION TO RELEVANT PERSONS

1.—Except as provided otherwise in this Schedule, sections 21 to 25, 26 (except subsections (2) and (3)), 28, 31 to 33 and 52 and paragraphs 14(1) (except subparagraphs (b), (c) and (e)) and 16(2)(a) of Schedule 2 shall not have effect in relation to relevant persons.

3.—(a) In section 26(2)—

- (i) the reference to a licensee is a reference to a relevant person,
- (ii) the reference to the revocation or suspension of a licence is a reference to a prohibition of the relevant person by the Authority from providing a security service in the State or to such a prohibition for a specified period, and
- (iii) the reference to the continuance in force of a licence is a reference to the continued provision of such a service.

(b) In section 26(3)—

- (i) the reference to a licensee is a reference to a relevant person, and
- (ii) the reference to the revocation or suspension of a licence is a reference to a prohibition of the relevant person by the Authority from providing a security service in the State or to such a prohibition for a specified period.

4.—The references in section 27(1) to the revocation or suspension of a licence are references to a prohibition, or a prohibition for a specified period, of a relevant person from providing a security service in the State and the section applies accordingly with the necessary modifications.

5.—Section 29 is modified as follows:

- (a) subsection (1) is deleted;
- (b) references in the section to an identity card are to an identity card or other form of identification issued to a relevant person by the corresponding authority concerned;
- (c) the reference in subsection (2)(b) to a licensee includes, where appropriate, a reference to a relevant person.

6.—References in section 30 to licensees are references to relevant persons, and references to the licence number of a licensee are to the number of the licence or other form of authorisation issued by the corresponding authority concerned.

[2004.] Private Security Services Act 2004. [No. 12.]

7.—The reference in section 34(1) to a licensee is a reference to a relevant person. SCH.3

8.—The reference in section 35 to a licensee is a reference to a relevant person and that to a licence is a reference to the licence or other form of authorisation issued to such a person by the corresponding authority concerned.

9.—References in section 36 to a licensee are references to a relevant person.

10.—Section 37(1) is amended by the insertion of “or is a relevant person authorised by a corresponding authority to provide such a service” after “that particular service”.

11.—The reference in section 38 to a licence is to a licence or other form of authorisation issued to a relevant person by the corresponding authority concerned.

12.—In section 39—

- (a) references to a licensee are references to a relevant person, and
- (b) references to the revocation and suspension of a licence are references to the prohibition of the relevant person by the Authority from providing a security service in the State and to such a prohibition for a specified period.

13.—In section 48—

- (a) references to a licensee are references to a relevant person,
- (b) references to the revocation or suspension of a licence are references to a prohibition, or a prohibition for a specified period, of a relevant person from providing a security service in the State, and
- (c) the reference to a licence or identity card is a reference to the licence or other form of authorisation, or the identity card or other form of identification, issued to such a person by the corresponding authority concerned.

14.—In section 50—

- (a) references to the revocation or suspension of a licence are references to a prohibition, or a prohibition for a specified period, of a relevant person from providing a security service in the State,
- (b) the reference to the continuance in force of a licence is a reference to the provision of such a security service, and
- (c) the reference to a licensee is a reference to a relevant person.
